HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE AND COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

Established July, 1839, by Freeman Hunt, Editor and Proprietor. Nine semi annual volumes, of about 500 pages each, completed. W 17H the number for July, 1843, commenced the W fifth year of the existence of this standard periodical. It is the only work of the kind in the world; and although mainly devoted to the interests and ants of the commercial and business community. has become an indepensable work of reference to the has become an indepensable work of reference to the satesman and political economist. Its contents embrace every subject connected with commerce and anyigation; agriculture and manufactures; currency and banking; fire and marine insurance; mercantite biography; neccantile and maritime law; the laws and regulations of trade, including important decisions in the different courts of the United States, Great Britain &c.) with martical essential trade, including important decisions in the different courts of the United States, Great Britain &c.) with martical essential trades. tain, &c.;) with practical essays on commercial law, including insurance, partnership, principal and agent, bills of exchange, sale, guarany, shipping and contracts, and obligations in general.

The Commercial Regulations, Port Charges, Tariffs, Commercial Treaties, etc., of all nations with which we have commercial intercourse, with all alterations in the same, are collected and published from time to time in this Magazine; which is also the repository for full and authentic Statistical Tables of the Commerce, Trade, Navigation, Railroads, Canils, Resources, Population, Banking or Currency of the United States, and the principal countries of the world, including their Physical Character, Productions, Trade, Scaports, Moneys, Measures, Finance, &c. cipal Northern and Eastern routes. Either of the runs will take passengers in time to reach the Lake Champiain boat.

The arrangement between Whitehall and Saratoga is new, and much more pleasant and expeditious than heretofore. It is by stages to Dunham's Basin, near Sandy Hill, and thence in packet boats to Whitehall, thus avoiding the rough part of the roud.

Returning—leave Whitehall on arrival of Champlain boat, by packet boat to Dunham's Basin, and thence to Saratoga in stages, to arrive in time for the cars.

If PA stage leaves Saratoga, daily, at 5 o'clock, a. m., to arrive at Whitehall in time for the steamboat, which leaves at 1 o'clock, p. m., of the steamboat, which leaves at 1 o'clock, p. m., of the same day. Passengers going East, by taking this line, will arrive at Rutland, vermont, carly in the evening.
